CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

for the

Summer School

“ED4ELE

Equality and diversity in European legal education”

The Summer School will take place at Faculty of Law, University of Split from 04 till 10 of September 2022 (04 and 10 a half-day programme is planned - on arrival day in the afternoon/ on departure day in the morning - the rest of these days is for arrival and departure). It will be organized within the framework of the project “ED4ELE Equality and diversity in European legal education” of the SEELS network faculties, the University of Ljubljana, Faculty of Law (Slovenija) and the Europa-Institut of Saarland University (Germany), financially supported by DAAD and Federal Foreign Office of Germany.

The summer school aims to introduce students and young academics to the basics of international and European anti-discrimination and equality law. They should be made more aware of the topic and enabled to recognise deficiencies and defuse situations through knowledge of the legal framework, and in particular to understand which instruments exist to avoid and remedy discrimination. Moreover, interactive trainings and workshop sessions should foster the discussion among the participants. The program will be delivered in English with a selection of the following topics (preliminary list, changes will be possible): Introduction to Anti-discrimination Law, Gender Equality and Women’s Rights in International and European Human Rights Law; Strengthening the position of LGBTQIA+ community in education; Protection of (ethnic) Minorities in Higher Education; Hate Speech and Cyber Bullying; Discrimination and Compliance: The right for a fair and discrimination-free workplace ; Vulnerable groups on campus – Human Rights and Disability: The Convention on Rights of Persons with Disabilities; Equality and Diversity in Higher Education; Discussion with stakeholders about their practical work and the daily imprints.

The participation in the summer school will be awarded with a certificate of successful completion provided regular attendance of classes and successful completion of given tasks. It will be the individual decision of the academic institution of the participant if the certificate is recognized for obtaining ECTS.
